

Big Coaching Project - Cascade Training

What is it?	The SAM Volunteer Management cascade training is part of the Big Coaching Project which is funded by the Big Lottery Fund and is run by North West Network's (NWN's) Volunteer Management Team. The aim of this training is for local, sub regional and regional volunteering infrastructure organisations to receive practical experience of using SAM Volunteer Management by passing on the knowledge and techniques used by NWN. This will cascade down to benefit local volunteer involving organisations in their the local community. This will ensure the impact of the Big Coaching Project is as wide and as sustainable as possible.
Who is it for?	Volunteering infrastructure organisations – defined as any organisation who supports volunteer involving organisations in the North West of England.
What is SAM Volunteer Management?	SAM Volunteer Management is a self assessment manual for organisations that involve volunteers in their work. It is a designed to support volunteer managers in improving their volunteer programmes through one to one support from volunteering infrastructure organisations. This will enable and empower volunteer managers to look at what they do, why they do it and how they can improve their volunteer programmes. SAM Volunteer Management (a self assessment tool) was developed by NWN and a consultation group made up of local, sub-regional and regional volunteering organisations throughout the North West of England.
What are the benefits?	SAM Volunteer Management, combined with the training on how to use it, will help you to increase your capacity and services. It will assist you in supporting volunteer involving organisations to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Identify areas of improvement ● Identify successes ● Act as a starting point for recording information ● Act as a record of what's being done ● Write better funding applications (gathering information for funders) ● Ensure best practice ● Identify their training needs ● Identify problems and solutions ● Start a new area of work ● Look at work situations differently
What is the commitment?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● 3 days training ● Carrying out SAM Volunteer Management internally and externally ● To complete pre training and evaluation questionnaires ● To be honest and open ● To be non-judgemental ● Happy to be supported for 6 months
